TXT[Drew attention to document S/AC.25/1992/COMM.380 concerning an investigation that was being carried out by the Government of Yemen with regard to the circumstances attending the reflagging of the Iraqi vessel Bahor Al-Arab. He recalled in that connection that the Committee had denied the request made on two occasions by the Permanent Representative of Iraq (S/AC.25/1991/COMM.492 and S/AC.25/1991/COMM.617) concerning the transport of foodstuffs on Iraqi ships, including a vessel called Al Bahr Al Arabi. It was necessary to ascertain whether that vessel was the same as the Bahor Al-Arab, and to investigate the matter.]

that the Committee should respond as follows to the questions raised by the General Counsel of INMARSAT: (a) the commissioning of the land-based mobile earth stations would not contravene any of the relevant resolutions of the Security Council, as long as it did not involve the shipment to Iraq of any equipment or spare parts or the provision of technical services on Iraqi territory; (b) the commissioning of mobile earth stations for use on board Iraqi-registered aircraft or ships was not in contravention of any of the provisions of those resolutions, as long as the aircraft or ships concerned did not carry out the operations referred to in Security Council resolutions 665 (1990) and 670 (1990);]
