ITEM[Article 50: Pakistan]

TXT[Made a presentation in which he detailed the losses for his country arising from the implementation of resolution 661 (1990). These included an estimated $70 million for repatriating Pakistani citizens, $300 million in lost remittances and $100 million in lost export receipts. The rise in petroleum prices would entail extra expenditure for the economy of Pakistan of between $1 billion and $1.5 billion by the end of 1990; the Government had already been compelled to raise gasoline prices by 40%. Foreign currency reserves were sufficient for a few weeks only and $2 billion was required in quick disbursing aid.]
